

(Notice) Annual Report 2012 that had been made public in August 31, 2012 was corrected as follows.

Revision part	Before corrected	After corrected
Page16 Installation of filtered vent equipment	We have installed filtered vent equipment that, if a severe accident should occur, will be able to drastically suppress release of radioactive substances by releasing through filters the gases inside the reactor containment vessels.	We will install filtered vent equipment that, if a severe accident should occur, will be able to ⇒ drastically suppress release of radioactive substances by releasing through filters the gases inside the reactor containment vessels.